MOTION OF THE CITY OF DETROIT, PURSUANT TO SECTION 105(a) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE, FOR AN ORDER CONFIRMING THAT THE AUTOMATIC STAY DOES NOT APPLY TO DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS INITIATED BY THE CITY AGAINST CITY OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

The City of Detroit, Michigan (the "City") hereby files this motion, pursuant to section 105(a) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), for the entry of an order¹ confirming that the automatic stay provisions of sections 362 and 922 of the Bankruptcy Code (as modified or extended by orders of the Court, the "Automatic Stay") do not apply to disciplinary proceedings, including arbitration proceedings, initiated by the City against officers or employees of the City (collectively, the "Disciplinary Proceedings"). In support of this Motion, the City respectfully represents as follows:

Background

1. On July 18, 2013 (the "Petition Date"), the City filed a petition for relief in this Court, thereby commencing the largest chapter 9 case in history.

2. On December 5, 2013, the Court entered the Opinion Regarding Eligibility (Docket No. 1945) and the Order for Relief Under Chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code (Docket No. 1946) thereby finding that the City is eligible to be a debtor under chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code and entering an order for relief in favor of the City.

3. On September 16, 2014, the City filed the Seventh Amended Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (Docket No. 7502) (as it may be further amended, modified or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan"). The hearing on confirmation of the Plan commenced on August 29, 2014 and is ongoing as of the date hereof.²

² Pursuant to the terms of the Plan, the City anticipates that, upon the confirmation and effectiveness of the Plan, an injunction will take effect enjoining the enforcement of certain claims involving the City, among other entities (the "Plan Injunction"). Just as with respect to the Automatic Stay, the City submits that the Plan Injunction is not intended to, and will not, enjoin the City's prosecution of the Disciplinary Proceedings.

Jurisdiction

4. This Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Relief Requested

5. The Automatic Stay does not apply to the Disciplinary Proceedings because the Disciplinary Proceedings are initiated by (and not against) the City. Accordingly, the City is authorized to continue to prosecute the Disciplinary Proceedings notwithstanding the pendency of the City's chapter 9 case. Nevertheless, at least one arbitrator presiding over a pending Disciplinary Proceeding involving a City public safety officer (the "Pending Arbitration") has (a) expressed concern over whether the Pending Arbitration is subject to the Automatic Stay and (b) requested an order of the Court confirming that the City may continue to prosecute the Pending Arbitration notwithstanding the Automatic Stay.³ Therefore, to permit the City to continue prosecuting the Pending Arbitration and all other Disciplinary Proceedings without further delay, and to avoid the potentially unnecessary payment of compensation to suspended employees subject to such proceedings pending their completion, the City hereby requests the entry of an order confirming that the Automatic Stay does not apply to the Disciplinary Proceedings.

Basis for Relief

6. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Court to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).

7. The Automatic Stay does not apply to the Disciplinary Proceedings. In chapter 9, the Automatic Stay by its terms applies to actions against the debtor and to acts to obtain possession of or exercise control over property of the debtor.⁴

⁴ Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides in relevant part:

[A] petition filed under . . . this title . . . operates as a stay, applicable to all entities, of —

(1) the commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process, of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title, or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title;

(3) any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate

11 U.S.C. § 362(a). Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is made applicable in chapter 9 by section 901 of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C.

8. Although the scope of the Automatic Stay is broad, it does not apply to claims asserted by the debtor against other parties. See Crosby v. Monroe Cnty., 394 F.3d 1328, 1331 n.2 (11th Cir. 2004) ("The automatic stay provision of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 362, does not extend to lawsuits initiated by the debtor."); U.S. Abatement Corp. v. Mobil Exploration & Producing U.S. (In re U.S. Abatement Corp.), 39 F.3d 563, 568 (5th Cir. 1994) (concluding "counterclaims asserted by a debtor are not actions 'against the debtor' which are subject to the automatic stay"); Mar. Elec. Co. v. United Jersey Bank, 959 F.2d 1194, 1203-04 (3d Cir. 1991) ("Although the scope of the automatic stay is broad, the clear language of section 362(a) indicates that it stays only proceedings against a 'debtor' – the term used by the statute itself."); Carley Capital Grp. v. Fireman's Fund Ins. Co., 889 F.2d 1126, 1127 (D.C. Cir. 1989) (the automatic stay is inapplicable to suits brought by the debtor); Bill Heard Chevrolet Corp. – Nashville v. Histle, 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8464, at *5 (M.D. Tenn. Feb. 10, 2006) (recognizing that "[n]umerous circuits and other courts have held that the automatic stay does not apply to lawsuits initiated by the debtor . . .").

§ 901(a). Section 902 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that references to "property of the estate" when used in a section that is made applicable in a case under this chapter . . . means property of the debtor." 11 U.S.C. § 902.

9. In addition, the Automatic Stay does not bar defendants from defending against actions commenced and prosecuted by the debtor.⁵ See U.S. Abatement Corp., 39 F.3d at 568 ("If a debtor's offensive claims are not subject to the automatic stay, a fortiori a creditor's motion to reinstate and seek summary judgment of such non-stayed claims is not subject to the automatic stay."); Martin-Trigona v. Champion Fed. Sav. & Loan Ass'n., 892 F.2d 575, 577 (7th Cir. 1989) (finding defendant did not violate the automatic stay provision by moving to dismiss plaintiff-debtor's state-court action); Hayes v. Liberty Mut. Grp. Inc., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 61419, at *11 (E.D. Mich. May 2, 2012) (concluding, notwithstanding the Automatic Stay, that a non-debtor defendant may defend against the debtors' claims, "including defense by way of dispositive motion").

10. Here, the Automatic Stay does not apply to the Disciplinary Proceedings because they are offensive actions commenced by the City as plaintiff against City officers and employees that are subject to disciplinary action.

⁵ Defendants in actions commenced by the debtor may be prevented from asserting certain counterclaims against the debtor absent relief from the Automatic Stay. See Mar. Elec. Co., 959 F.2d at 1205 (counterclaims by defendants against the debtor "are treated independently when determining which of their respective proceedings are subject to the bankruptcy stay."); In re Enron Corp., 2003 Bankr. LEXIS 2261, at *11 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Jan. 13, 2003) ("[W]here a debtor is the initial plaintiff, counterclaims for affirmative relief implicate the automatic stay."). No counterclaim is asserted in the Pending Arbitration. Any counterclaims asserted against the City will remain subject to the Automatic Stay, absent further order of the Court.

Nevertheless, the arbitrator presiding over the Pending Arbitration has stayed that proceeding pending receipt of an order of this Court confirming that the City may continue to prosecute the Pending Arbitration notwithstanding the City's chapter 9 case. The City anticipates that parties presiding over other Disciplinary Proceedings – including other arbitration proceedings – may in the future insist upon the receipt of a similar order.

11. The continuation of pending Disciplinary Proceedings will avoid unnecessary delays in their prosecution and the expenses often attendant in such delays, including, without limitation, the unnecessary compensation of suspended employees. Accordingly, the City requests that the Court enter an order, pursuant to its authority under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, confirming that the Automatic Stay does not apply to the Disciplinary Proceedings generally.

Notice

12. Notice of this Motion has been given to the defendant in the Pending Arbitration and all entities that have requested notice pursuant to Rule 2002 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. The City submits that no other or further notice need be provided.

Statement of Concurrence

13. Local Rule 9014-1(g) provides that "in a bankruptcy case unless it is unduly burdensome, the motion shall affirmatively state that concurrence of opposing counsel in the relief sought has been requested on a specified date and that the concurrence was denied." Local Rule 9014-1(g). The City believes that it would be unduly burdensome to request and obtain the concurrence of each of the defendants in all Disciplinary Proceedings to the relief requested herein.

On October 16, 2014, the City requested the concurrence of the defendant in the Pending Arbitration to the relief requested herein. As of the date of filing of this Motion, the defendant in the Pending Arbitration has not consented to the relief requested herein.

Statement Regarding Evidentiary Nature of Hearing

14. The City believes that this Motion raises no factual issues and anticipates that an evidentiary hearing on this Motion will not be required.

No Prior Request

15. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this or any other Court.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth herein the City respectfully requests that this Court (a) enter the Proposed Order and (b) grant such other and further relief to the City as the Court may deem proper.
